We have designed a multi-agent architecture to deliver metadata streams synchronously with multimedia streams over a wide-area network. To this end, we have devised a simple protocol for synchronising agents to a media clock. This protocol defines the concept of a deadline, after which servers can drop data because it can no longer reach clients in time. We also introduce a new concept of a contract as a first-class entity representing a successful subscription; a contract is used by agen ...

This paper describes the MPEG-7 compliant indexing and retrieval system iFinder based on XML and open source database technology. The iFinder system automatically extracts metadata from A/V-content and allows access to the enriched content by means of a client/server-based retrieval engine. This multimedia retrieval system allows for search and retrieval of short video segments in huge multimedia archives. As a reference application, the iFinder system is used to index speeches from the German P ...
